

Independent publishing

Krätli S. 2016. Discontinuity in pastoral development: time to update the method, OIE Scientific and Technical Review, 35(2).

Krätli S., Hülsebusch C., Brooks S. and Kaufmann B. 2013. Pastoralism: A critical asset for food security under global climate change. Animal Frontiers 2(5): 42-50.

Krätli S. and N. Schareika 2010. Living off Uncertainty. The Intelligent Animal Production of Dryland Pastoralists. European Journal of Development Research 22(5): 605-622.

Krätli S. 2010. Réflexion sur le pastoralisme et sa viabilité. AGRIDAPE 26(1): 6-9.

Krätli S. 2010. Karamoja with the Rest of 'the Rest of Uganda'. Nomadic Peoples 14.2: 3-23, Special Issue: Disarmament as Development for Karamoja. A New Chapter in Dismantling Pastoral Production in Uganda.

Krätli S. 2008. Cattle breeding, Complexity and Mobility in a Structurally Unpredictable Environment: the WoDaaBe herders of Niger, Nomadic Peoples 12(1): 11-41.

International Consultancy

2016-2017, scientific advisor on pastoralism to the Tufts University BRACED project in Sudan and Chad.

2015-2017, scientific advisor to Misereor pastoral development projects in Ethiopia.

2014-2015, lead consultant in the Joint Evaluation Synthesis of IFAD/FAO's Engagement in Pastoral Development \(2003-2014\), with Marie Monimart and Jeremy Swift, for IFAD Office of Independent Evaluation and FAO Office of Evaluation, Rome.

2015, lead author of Valuing Variability. New perspectives on climate resilient drylands development, a publication by the UK-based think-tank International Institute for Environment and Development (IIED). aimed at policy makers and practitioners. (Chinese edition in preparation.)

2014, lead author of a desk study on livelihood, security and pastoralism in the Sahara (with Jeremy Swift and Annabelle Powell), for the World Bank.

2014, lead consultant in a desk study on 'Counting Pastoralists' in Kenya, with Jeremy Swift, for REGLAP/DLCI, Nairobi.

2014, author of a desk study on methodology options and gaps in Total Economic Valuation studies of pastoral systems: If Not Counted Does Not Count?, for the International Institute for Environment and Development, London.

2013, writing the background paper and assisting in organising and running the GrassNet workshop 2013 on 'Climate-resilient Rangeland Development: understanding the barriers embedded in methodologies'.

2013, lead author of an evaluation of twenty years of water development work in pastoral regions of Chad by the French Development Agency, with Marie Monimart, Blamah Jalloh, Jeremy Swift and Ced Hesse: Evaluation et capitalisation de 20 ans d'interventions du Groupe AFD portant sur le secteur de l'Hydraulique pastorale au Tchad, (Also published in English as Pastoral Water Development in Chad. Evaluation of AFD Interventions over 20 years), for the international Institute for Environment and Development, London.

2013, scientific advisor, assisting the West African pastoral-association network Réseau Billital Maroobe with the participatory process of producing their 2015-2020 strategy.

2013, lead researcher in a study on the importance of pastoralist economy in Sudan, with Helen Young: Standing Wealth. Pastoralist Livestock Production and Local Livelihood in Sudan, United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and Feinstein International Centre, Tufts University, Khartoum.

2011-2012, lead consultant in the analysis of the draft 'Uganda Rangeland Management and Development Policy' (with Ced Hesse, IIED), and the draft 'Uganda Pastoral Code', for Coalition for Pastoral Civil Society Organizations, Kampala.

2012, delivered a training on pastoralism in the context of the annual meeting of the International Committee of the Red Cross.

2009-2010, scientific advisor to the project 'Education for Nomads', with the Ministry for Development of Northern Kenya. Lead author of the preparatory study (Krätli S. and C. Dyer 2009. Mobile Pastoralists and Education: Strategic Options, International Institute of Environment and Development. Education for Nomads Working Paper 1, London) and key role in the design of the strategy and the technical manual (MDNKOAL 2010. Getting to the Hardest to Reach: A strategy to provide education to nomadic communities in Kenya through distance learning, Minister of State for Development of Northern Kenya and Other Arid Lands (Office of the Prime Minister) and Education for Nomads programme, Nairobi).

2009, lead the strategic review of the ABEK project \(Alternative Basic Education for Karamoja\), for Save the Children in Uganda.

2008, scientific advisor to the programme 'Supporting pastoral mobility in East and West Africa', for the International Institute for Environment and Development, London. Pioneered the use of Future Scenario Planning with pastoralism. Produced a series of shorts participatory videos with Wodaabe in Niger, including Ngaynaaka: Herding Chaos, a documentary project on their cattle breeding system (5' video). Contributed to the theory section of Modern and Mobile. The future of livestock production in Africa's drylands, published by the International Institute for Environment and Development.

2000-2001, researcher on a project on Culture, education and pastoral livelihood in Turkana and Karamoja, with Jeremy Swift, funded under the World Bank Learning and Research Program on Culture and Poverty.

2000, producing a worldwide review of the literature on Education Provision to Nomadic Pastoralists (with fieldwork in Mongolia), for the World Bank.

1999, producing a literature review on Understanding and Managing Pastoral Conflict in Kenya, with Jeremy Swift for the Department for International Development (DFID), UK.